To whom it may concern,

I am writing in support of Model 1, an un-subdivided council for the Electoral Review for MASC.

This seems to be the most democratic option, giving people a wider choice of candidates so they can vote for what is important to them.

- quality of candidates
- protecting biodiversity
- providing aged care services, child care, youth services
- business interests
- rural roads maintenance,
- protecting equality
- local planning decisions, etc.

It will be simpler to organise elections - and have no on-going issues with having to adjust boundaries with population changes.

Yours sincerely

Ms Christine Hooper
